

Kum Chi Keung

Kum Chi Keung was born in Hong Kong. He first studied Chinese painting when he was in High School and then went on to study at the First Institute of Art and Design in Hong Kong. Since 1993 Kum has created site specific installations for numerous organizations and in countless locations including the Hong Kong Arts Centre, the Hong Kong Museum of Art, the Star Ferry Pier, Cattle Depot Artists Village, Hong Kong Central Library, Hong Kong Heritage Museum and the University of Hong Kong to name just a few. His work has been exhibited in Macau, Canada, Australia, the United States and Germany and he has been invited to create site specific installations for the 11th Biennale of International Contemporary Art, Sydney, Australia and, most recently, the Seoul Fringe Festival in South Korea. Kum Chi Keung's work has been collected by private collectors worldwide and can be found in the collections of the Hong Kong Museum of Art and the Hong Kong Heritage Museum.
